RASMUSSEN WAS SPEAKER

First South Mountain Fair Augurs Well For Future Exhibitions. Large Crowds Swarm Grounds.

What the annual fairs are to York and Hanover, what Farmers' Day is to Gettysburg, the South Mountain Fair is destined to become to residents of the upper half of Adams county, if indications of the first gala event, held Tuesday, can be used as a measure.

The success of the first annual exhibition at the Arendtsville Union Park, was unquestioned by those in charge of arrangements. From start to finish, the fair was all and more the officials of the South Mountain Fair Association could wish, one in authority declared.

Great Interest Shown.

On every side during the day could be heard the expression "I didn't dream that it would be as fine as this." It was not only a fair for the townships of Butler, Menallen and Franklin and the boroughs in those districts, but the event had an appeal for every resident of every town and township in Adams county.

To the officers, directors and the executive committee of the South Mountain Fair Association belongs any honor for the evident success of the event. Every exhibit was in its proper tent and every event planned for the day was staged at its particular time and place.

Tuesday was proclaimed a holiday for everybody in the townships, of Butler, Menallen and Franklin, and judging from the crowd assembled on the park grounds, residents took advantage of the proclamation. The crowd during the afternoon was estimated from 3,500 to 5,000. Between 6,000 and 7,000 were present in the evening, it was estimated.

The fair grounds were divided into two sections by the baseball diamond. To the north of the diamond were the tents which housed the exhibits of fruits, vegetables, bread and cakes, preserves and art and needle work. To the south of the baseball field were the pens of hogs, the horses and cows, chickens and other livestock exhibits.

Large Apple Exhibits.

Two exhibits which attracted the greatest number of persons were the apples and the hogs. The tent in which the dishes of apples were arranged was scarcely able to hold the many entries. Paul Thayer, of State College, who judged the apple entries, stated that he counted 75 dishes of York Imperials alone. Grimes Golden varieties followed a close second. There were 50 exhibits of that variety, with Johnathans coming in for third honors with 43 prizes.

Hogs Prize Winners.

There were at least twenty-five pens of hogs at the fair and E. L. Christian was kept busy making his selection of the best boar and best sow in the exhibit. The Chester White sow, belonging to M. E. Knouse, of Brysonia, was chosen the best sow in the show. Mr. Knouse is a member of the Brysonia Chester White Breeders' Association.

A boar of the South Mountain Poland China Breeders' Association was the selection of Mr. Christian as the best male entered in the sweepstakes.

Judges were kept busy from morning until after 5 o'clock in the afternoon making awards. There was competition in every department of the show, exhibitors having made special efforts to bring their best for display. Ribbons were given first, second and third prize winners.

Rasmussen Speaks.

The speech of Fred Rasmussen, State Secretary of Agriculture, during the afternoon attracted a large number of hearers. He praised Adams county for its great strides in apple production and urged standardization of crops to secure greatest yield from (Continued on Third Page)

PLAN TO LIMIT TRUCK CAPACITY

Maximum Gross Weight May be Reduced to Eight Tons.

At the first annual meeting of the Township Supervisors Association of Pennsylvania in the House of Representatives Tuesday, a resolution was passed which will call upon the 1923 Legislature to set the maximum gross weight of trucks in Pennsylvania at eight tons instead of thirteen tons, the present limit. It was pointed out that many improved roads, such as have been built in this county, are being damaged.

The State Highway Department was then attacked for failure to pay $3,000,000 due the townships as road rewards, and for not publishing reports of the work done by the State.

Reports from various parts of the state show that the present weight of trucks used for hauling freight is too great for the roads as they are built, and that they often, in a few weeks, do as much damage to the roads as their license fees would amount to for the whole year.

One member said, "the trucks pay their license money to the state, and we get none of it back to repair our township roads which the trucks grind to pieces as fast as we build them. As a result, we are about to close some of our roads for lack of money to repair them."

He served with this organization until discharged at Camp Dix, New Jersey, June 7, 1919. He fought in France on the Meuse-Argonne, Troyon and Grand Montagne fronts, and was never wounded.

Mr. and Mrs. Bittinger will reside in York, where Mr. Bittinger is employed.

AWARDS LEAGUE PENNANT

Watch Fobs For Members of Second Ward Team.

Although there was no response to the call of Rev. Harry Daniels, president of the Gettysburg Ward League, for a meeting Tuesday evening, Mr. Daniels announced today the pennant for the 1922 season had been officially awarded to the Second Ward team, which finished first in the race.

"While the American, National and International baseball leagues are awarding pennants," said Dr. Daniels, "we might as well award ours."

Sixteen watch fobs, with the word, "Champions," engraved on each, have been given Robert Thompson, manager of the Second Ward team for distribution among the players.

Mr. Daniels will instruct managers of the ward teams to collect league uniforms so they may be stored away for the winter.

CONCRETING POOL

Floor Will Be Completed Before Cold Weather.

Concrete work on the swimming pool at the Playground was started Tuesday and the floor will be completed by the end of the week, it is expected. Difficulty in securing labor and materials has delayed the construction and it has not been decided whether the sides will be built this fall.

For the purpose of raising funds for the pool, tag day will be observed Farmers' Day. During the winter various benefits will be held to increase the sum to $1,500, the amount estimated to make the improvements.

Praise for the men and women who shared in making the South Mountain Fair a success and interesting figures on Adams county's production of apples, eggs and wheat, were the outstanding features in the address of Hon. Fred Rasmussen, State Secretary of Agriculture, at the South Mountain Fair, Tuesday afternoon. Several hundred persons assembled about the north end of the pavilion where the speaking took place. M. E. Knouse, of Brysonia, introduced Mr. Rasmussen.

"It is fine and worthy of great commendation to have men and women who are willing to give their time and energies toward furthering an enterprise such as the South Mountain Fair," declared Mr. Rasmussen in opening his remarks.

"The persons who head this fair do so without any thought of profit," the State Secretary of Agriculture continued, "and exhibitors know that there will be no recompense for them save the fact that they helped make the fair a success."

Mr. Rasmussen praised the industry and thrift of the farmers of Adams county, declaring that a fair like the one they were now enjoying could only have been made possible through careful calculations of industrial people.

DRIVE FOR GAME CONSERVATION

Will Make Central Pennsylvania Hunter's And Fisherman's Paradise.

Adams county sportsmen will watch with interest the drive planned by Central Pennsylvania's Fish and Game Conservation Association in Harrisburg and surrounding territories next month, with the expectation of making central Pennsylvania one of the best fish and game centers in the United States.

It is planned to raise at least $6,000 a year for a period of three years, the funds to be used in stocking the fishing streams, and eliminating vermin and other pests destructive to game. They also expect to stock with various types of game not now plentiful in the state. Good work has already been done in the prevention of stream pollution in several instances where it was threatened.

A committee for the Association has been successful in pledging all legislative candidates from their section to vote to keep intact the fishermen's and hunters' license funds, which were in danger of being diverted to other uses.

G. A. R. VETERANS ASSEMBLE

March Before Their Commander-in-Chief at Des Moines.

(By Associated Press)

Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 27.—Bowed in body and thinned in ranks but stalwart in the spirit that sent them marching through history from Fort Sumpter to Appomattox Court House, the surviving veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic marched again triumphant through the streets of Des Moines and passed in review before their commander-in-chief today.

To the familiar roll of their battle drums and the shrill call of the fife they marched behind the colors they bore to victory more than half a century ago.

As the command "Forward March" rang out, a platoon of police stepped ahead of Marshal H. H. Polk and his staff of mounted officers and an American Legion band blared out a military march that fixed the cadence.

Old Glory floated from a staff borne aloft by a husky United States Marine, and flanked by the regulation color guard. Then came proud, white-haired old men.

JURY INCOMPLETE

Ten Men Selected to Hear Murder Trial.

(By Associated Press)

Baltimore, Sept. 27.—The second day of the trial of John L. Smith and Charles Carey, two of the five principals, accused of the murder of William B. Norris, contractor, was started today before Judge Gorter in the criminal courts with the final struggle in an effort to obtain a jury.

Eleven men were in the box yesterday but this number was reduced to 10 when C. L. Cauliflower, who was chosen yesterday, was excused after Samuel K. Dennis, counsel for Harry B. Wolf, attorney, accused of criminal wrong doing by the bar association and under presentment by a special grand jury on charges of conspiracy with the Norris case informed Judge Gorter that Mr. Cauliflower had been associated in business with Charles Wolf, brother of Harry Wolf. Mr. Dennis said his attention had been called to the matter by Harry Wolf.

(By Associated Press)

Paris, Sept. 27.—Vice Admiral Andrew P. Long, United States Navy, commander of the American naval forces in European waters, has gone to Constantinople to direct naval operations there should any become necessary in participation with the foreign squadron, it was stated here today.

Washington Affirms

Washington, Sept. 27.—Paris news dispatches announcing that Vice Admiral Andrew P. Long of the American Navy had gone to Constantinople to direct possible naval operations were not understood in official circles where it was indicated that participation of American warships in any demonstration against the Turks was not a part of the present American policy toward the Near Eastern problem.

GRECIAN KING HAS ABDICATED

King Constantine Leaves Throne in Favor of Crown Prince.

TROOPS HAVE REVOLTED

Demand Peoples' Cabinet Favorable to The Entente. Martial Law Proclaimed as Insurrectionists Land.

(By Associated Press)

London, Sept. 27.—Greece is in the throes of a revolution which has already caused the downfall of the government and according to several reports has forced the unhappy Constantine to abdicate in favor of the crown prince, thus losing his throne for the second time in five years.

The Revolutionary movement which is said to be led by General Gompas is making headway in all directions but thus far without report of bloodshed.

The Insurrection which came as a swift storm from a cloudless sky, had its inception among the vanquished troops brought from Smyrna to the Island of Mytilene and Chios and among the soldiers at Saloniki. Strangely enough, however, the troops in revolt seemed to have different objects—the former aimed at the overthrow of the government and King Constantine and the latter at the defense of Thrace against the Turks.

Revolutionists Win

London, Sept. 27.—A Reuter dispatch from Athens received shortly before 7 o'clock this evening states that King Constantine has abdicated.

An Exchange telegram from Athens received about the same time it was affirmed that the King had "decided to agree to the demands of the revolutionists."

Troops Send Ultimatum

Athens, Sept. 27.—An ultimatum from the warship Lemos which arrived at Laurium on the peninsula southeast of Athens, with revolting troops, demanded the dissolution of the national assembly and the formation of a people's cabinet, friendly to the Entente.

A second ultimatum declared that if the national assembly had already been dissolved, it demanded the creation of a pro-Entente cabinet whose members would be appointed by the Revolutionaries.

If no favorable reply had been received by midnight it was declared disembarkation would be begun.

King Has Abdicated

London, Sept. 27.—A Central News dispatch from Athens timed at 8:30 o'clock this morning, states that King Constantine signed an abdication decree without reservation.

Troops Are Landed

Paris, Sept. 27.—A Havre dispatch from Athens, not timed, received here this afternoon says:

"The Insurrectionists, who have nine destroyers and naval aeroplanes, besides two warships, have landed troops at the straits of Laurium on the peninsula southeast of Athens. General Papoulas has been sent to try to stop them.—Martial law has been proclaimed."

STOCK REPORT

Bear Pressure Forces Whole List Downward.

(By Associated Press)

New York, Sept. 27.—Scattered liquidation and bear pressure against certain speculative issues carried the whole stock market list downward during the forenoon. Indications that the early bidding up of the oil shares was used as a screen to unload stocks elsewhere caused some profit taking in the Standard Oil group later. There was a particular recovery in part of the list around noon due to the easing of the call money rate to 4 1/4 per cent.

REPLY UNACCEPTABLE

(By Associated Press) Constantinople, 12:35 p. m. Sept. 27.—It is unofficially forecast that the Kemalists reply to the allied peace note contains propositions unacceptable to the allies in that the Nationalists insist upon the use of the Straits for transporting troops to Thrace before the beginning of the peace conference.

TURKS ENTRENCH IN NEUTRAL ZONE

Active War Preparations Reported. British Cruisers Ordered to Constantinople.

ENGLISH ULTIMATUM SENT

Kemal Given Forty Eight Hours to Withdraw Forces at Entrance of Dardanelles.

Constantinople, Sept. 27.—It is reported that the Turkish Nationalist troops are entrenching in the neutral zone of the Dardanelles.

British Send Flotilla.

Malta, Sept. 27.—The British light cruisers Ceres, Carysfort and Caledon and the third torpedo boat destroyer flotilla had orders to leave last night for Constantinople. The flotilla will be accompanied by the torpedo boat destroyers Rocket, Tuscan and Tribune and one submarine.

The British dreadnought Centurion arrived here yesterday.

British Ultimatum Sent.

Constantinople, Sept. 27.—General Harrington, the British commander-in-chief here, sent an ultimatum yesterday to Mustapha Kemal at Smyrna by wireless, giving him 48 hours from the receipt of the telegram to withdraw his forces from Kum Kaleh (Kum Kalesi) at the entrance to the Dardanelles.

Another body of a thousand Turkish cavalry crossed the neutral zone from Bigha today. This movement is like that at Erenkeui, apparently concerted before the receipt of the Allies' note.

Kemal To Accept Conditionally.

The reply of the Turkish Nationalist Government to the Allied peace note has been completed and comprises acceptance of the conditions laid down at the Paris Conference, according to Enver Bey, aide-de-camp to Mustapha Kemal Pasha, who has arrived here from Smyrna.

The Nationalists, however, insist upon their right to conduct military movements during the progress of the conference, and also demand admission to the meeting of all the Allies of the Angora Government, including Russia, Persia and Bulgaria.

Will Begin Parley October 2.

The armistice conference to arrange for the cessation of hostilities between the Greeks and Turkish Nationalists will be held at Maudania on or about October 2, provided that the Angora Government accepts the provisional peace terms outlined in the note from the Allied powers.

This was decided at a council of the Allied High Commissioners held yesterday afternoon in the British Embassy, and attended by Hamid Bey, representative of the Nationalists. Hamid asked pledges from the British Government that the positions around Chanak be not reinforced during the progress of the negotiations.

NEW ANGLE IN DOUBLE MURDER

Frequent Quarrels in Mills Family Heard by Neighbors.

New Brunswick, N. J., Sept. 27.—Discovery of a witness who claimed to have heard frequent quarrels between Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills and her husband, James Mills, over the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, yesterday led authorities investigating the double murder of the rector and his choir leader, to subject Mills to another long grilling.

Mills has maintained, since the bodies were discovered a week ago last Saturday, that he had no suspicions concerning the relations between the two or that they planned an elopement to Japan.

Mills' 16-year-old daughter, Charlotte, also was examined again. When the two left the courthouse, Prosecutor Beekman, of Somerset county, said that while some progress had been made toward solution of the mystery, it was not as much as had been hoped for.

"Are you working upon any particular theory?" he was asked.

"No. There are half a dozen channels along which we are working. Jealousy plays an important part in our investigations as furnishing a possible motive, but it is not the only possible motive."

"Has anyone been eliminated?" he was asked.

"Nobody," he replied.

MAKES PERFECT IMITATION JEWEL

Experts Unable to Distinguish Artificial From The Real.

Paris, Sept. 27.—Owners in Paris of valuable strings of pearls have been thrown into something like consternation by the published opinion of Dr. Louis Boutan, professor of science at the University of Bordeaux and an expert in pearls, that he and other pearl experts are unable to distinguish between real pearls and those artificially grown by the Japanese. The statement of Dr. Boutan, made at the French Academy of Sciences, removes the last hope concerning Japanese pearls, which have been grown in quantity since M. Mikimoto, the Japanese scientist, made his discovery.

Pearls normally are grown by accident, through a fine grain of sand entering the shell of the oyster. The white substance, called a pearl, grows inside the oyster and is a secretion caused by the effort of the shellfish to get rid of the foreign substance. Mikimoto conceived the idea of opening oysters and inserting the foreign substance, or grain of sand, that formerly came there accidentally.

Since Japanese began to grow pearls artificially, there has been much discussion as to whether these new pearls would affect the value of the accidentally grown pearls. The only difference would appear to be in the pearl seed, or grain of sand, and now it is claimed by Dr. Boutan that even this difference cannot be detected.

The statement of Dr. Boutan is categorical: "If I did not have a certificate of origin when sections of pearls were shown me, pearls cut into sections for testing purposes, I would not be able to say which pearl is artificial."

PLEDGES SHARE AUSTRIAN LOAN

England Informs League of Nations Council She is Ready.

ITALY TO FOLLOW SUIT

Lord Cecil Recommends Nations Reduce Military Expenditures to The Pre-War Basis.

Geneva, Sept. 27.—Great Britain yesterday informed the council of the League of Nations that she was ready to guarantee her share of 20 per cent of the Austrian loan of 520,000,000 gold crowns. Italy's guarantee, which was dependent on Great Britain taking her share, will be immediately announced, which is regarded as assuring the success of the plan elaborated by the council committee of five.

This was the most important work of the council yesterday. The assembly of the League held a general debate on the question of reduction of armaments. The only novelties in the debate were the suggestion by Lord Robert Cecil, Great Britain, that the aircraft of the world might be turned over to the League of Nations for use in enforcing peace, and a proposition advanced by Peter Munch, Denmark, that obligatory military service be abolished throughout the world.

H. A. L. Fisher, Great Britain, and Paul Hymans, Belgium, were the principal speakers at the afternoon session. Fisher dwelt particularly on the failure of the St. Germain convention for the control of traffic in arms.

"It is impossible that the manufacture of armament can be limited or traffic in arms controlled without the co-operation of arms manufacturers in the United States," said Mr. Fisher. "Europe cannot be expected to submit to limitation from which arms manufacturers of America are free. If my voice could carry across the Atlantic, I would pray the peace-loving citizens of the United States to bring pressure on their Government to co-operate with the Powers represented at this great assembly in order that we might devise a code of regulations to prevent gross abuses in the manufacture and traffic in armaments."

During his speech Mr. Fisher said it was the viewpoint of the British Government that reparations and war debts were inseparable. Baron Hayashi, Japan, approving of the armament committee's report, said he was proud Japan had signed the treaty at Washington. M. Haymans admitted during his address that the League of Nations could not order disarmament, but he said it could formulate plans on which the Governments of the world could act.

The report of the committee on reduction of armaments, which was brought before the League of Nations assembly yesterday by Lord Robert Cecil for final action, recommends that the European Powers, except Spain, Belgium and the newly-formed States, reduce the total of their expenditures for military, naval and air forces to the amounts spent in 1913.

SELECTS OWN FLOWERS

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Instruction for the floral decorations of his grave and that of his wife are given in the will of Charles Greer, of Harrison, N. Y. He left a $4,000,000 estate to his children. Greer was killed in an automobile accident in Chicago several weeks ago.

Railroad bonds worth $4,000 were left in trust for the following purpose:

"For planting of flower beds four feet in diameter, one on the northerly side of the monument and one on the southerly side; the first year with pansies and the next year with white geraniums. Also, mounds 1, 2, 23, 24 and 29 to be planted first with pansies, then with white begonias. It is my wish and I so direct that as to mound 23, where my dear wife was laid, that on October 15 of each year and every year there will be placed five dozen white carnations upon the mound and that for Easter Sunday there be placed three dozen calla lilies upon the mound."

KEEPS COWS IN HOUSE

Nikolaiev, Russia, Sept. 27.—Hungry peasants in this district are sheltering their cattle in their houses because of an epidemic of cattle stealing. Extreme shortage of livestock has put a high premium on cattle, with the result that those fortunate enough to own even one head find it much safer to keep the animal under the family roof.

GIRL'S LETTERS IN MURDER TRIAL

Evidence Tends to Prove Teacher Did Not Love Creasy.

Mineola, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Evidence, tending to disprove William Creasy's claim that Edith Lavozy, youthful Freeport school teacher, committed suicide last June in a fit of despondency because he would not marry her, was introduced at Creasy's trial for her murder yesterday in the form of letters written by Miss Lavozy shortly before she died.

One, written after a visit from Creasy in April, at which time, the prosecution claims, Miss Lavozy broke her engagement to him, disclosed the girl as worried only because of the desperation Creasy showed in communication with her.

Tried to Throw Him Over

Another letter, written to Miss Lavozy's younger sister, Eve, at the family home in Tupper Lake, N. Y., on May 22, said she had "been trying to throw Bill over, but don't believe I can do it yet."

"Don't believe I care a rap for any man," the letter added.

One addressed to her sister, Minnie, on June 23, the day of her death, said:

"That fool of a Billy is here, and, ye gods, I just told him to go to—If he stops off at Tupper Lake, give him the cold shoulder. Don't bother with him, not even to give him a meal."

FARM CALENDAR

Timely Reminders From The Pennsylvania State College.

Potatoes Properly Graded bring a better price than the ungrade product. Whether stored or sold direct, the freer the crop from dirt the better. Provision should be made for good ventilation and a steady temperature of 35 to 40 degrees in the storage cellar.

Peach Tree Borers—Do not use the para-dichlorobenzene treatment after October 15. Plans should be made to apply the chemical to the trees before that date.

Picking Apples—Never pile apples under the trees to "sweat". If storage, either natural or artificial, is not available, allow the fruit to remain on the trees as long as possible. Then when they must be picked grade them immediately and put away in the coolest possible place.

Full Grown Tomatoes—Before the first frost injures them, pick off all the fully developed tomatoes, wrap each one in newspaper or wrapping paper, and lay away in a cool, dark place. They will keep a month or more by this method. If ripening is to be hastened, bring them out in the warmth and sunlight.

Pullet Culling Profitable—In culling pullets, the main points to consider are a long, broad back; full abdomen; deep, long breast; clean cut head; and a bright eye. Ten to fifteen per cent of the pullet crop can be killed without affecting the flock prospects.

Drain Your Land—Tile drains keep the ground in such condition that the crop can get a good root system started in the early spring. Later on, in the event of a drought, the plants are better able to cope with the dry season.

Hog House Pointers—Make sure now that the hog houses are water-tight and well-floored in preparation for the cold, wet days of fall and winter.

Tailored Costume

Plain navy blue pleated skirts worn with trim wash blouses are often a welcome change in the school girl's wardrobe. The blouses are of dimity, voile, or pongee and the skirts of serge, twill or flannel.

Doctor—"I can't make out your wife's case at all, sir. She seems to have lumbago, rheumatic joints and gout, a sprained neck and a curved spine." Billkins—"I know what it is Doc. She was reading in our cozy corner and fell asleep."—Wayside Tales.

SCIENCE STUDIES COMET TAILS

Mysterious Forces Disturb Passage of Planets and Puzzle Astronomists.

(By Science Service)

Williams Bay, Wis., Sept. 27.—Long and delicate comet tails sweeping through the planetary spaces are sometimes disturbed and broken by some force still mysterious to astronomers. Prof. E. E. Barnard, of Yerkes Observatory, revealed here at meeting of the American Astronomical Society.

Besides showing that the comet itself has much control over the direction of the tail and streamers, photography, that reveals what the eye can not see, has shown that unknown influences opposed to the theory of gravitation seem to be at work in the space immediately about our sun.

"This is highly suggestive and may lead to discoveries of very great importance concerning certain conditions within the solar system," declares Prof. Barnard.

"It is well known that a comet's tail always points approximately away from the sun," explains Prof. Barnard, "and that its form is determined by the speed with which the small particles forming it leave the head, going outward from the sun by the pressure of the sun's light. We may therefore have, if the particles are moving very fast, relative to the speed of the comet in its orbit, a very straight tail pointing directly away from the sun. If the speed of the particles is relatively slow, then the motion of the comet in its orbit, combined with the motion of the particles, will cause the tail to be curved away from the direction of motion. These features of a comet's tail are easily understood from our knowledge of the motion of a comet and the repellant action of the sun's light, so that we may have a straight tail if the particles are moving very fast away from the sun or a violently curved one if their motion is slow. But the curvature, if there is any, must invariably be away from the direction of motion. Photographs have sometimes shown a curvature in a contrary direction to this and that the tail has been thrown forward at a large angle, sometimes suddenly, thus moving faster than the comet itself which is nearer the sun. This is opposed to the theory of gravitation and must be due to some cause which is independent of the sun and comet. Within twenty-four hours it may recover its natural position."

Prof. Barnard explains that by far the most interesting comets have not been visible to the naked eye. The smaller and more active comets are studied on the photographic plate. Some of the very large and best known comets, as Halley's comet of 1910 and others have not shown any unusual phenomena.

"Sometimes a comet will reject its tail, always sending out a new one in a slightly different direction, which, like the smoke from a locomotive, will drift away and dissipate in space," he says. "Sometimes a comet will cease to hold its particles together and will itself melt away in space and cease forever to be a comet. These are called 'lost comets.' Beila's is the best known of the lost comets. It has resolved itself into a great swarm of meteors that sometimes are encountered by the earth and burned up in our atmosphere. These displays are called meteoric showers. A comet may sometimes separate into two or more bodies and later disappear altogether from the heavens."

COUNTY PRAISED FOR ITS YIELDS

Rasmussen asserted. "Ten years ago Adams county was sixteenth in the production of apples. Today this county heads the list of sixty seven counties in the state in the production of apples. In addition, Adams county has the highest percentage of apples per tree, clearly proving that the growers here are learning year by year what apples are best suited for their land and are taking the best care of their trees and the crop before maturity."

"While Adams county had more chickens per farm than any other county in the state, in 1920, the production of eggs was not as great as it should have been. There were 131 hens per farm in Adams county two years ago. Last year the county produced two million dozens of eggs."

Urges Progress. "While the county stands near the top of the list of counties in the production of wheat and corn, the yield in neither of these crops is what it should or can be."

As a means of improving the yield in corn, wheat, and eggs, Mr. Rasmussen urged standardization. "Learn what variety of corn and wheat is best adapted to the particular section in which you live and then endeavor to get the most from the soil," declared Mr. Rasmussen in speaking of standardization. "Select the best producing strain of chickens and develop them along the line best known in that industry," he urged.

Praises Hog Breeders.

Mr. Rasmussen declared that where there is an abundance of corn, the raising of hogs follows automatically. He spoke in high terms of the county's hog breeders' associations, stating that they were doing admirable work for the advancement of the pork industry in other counties which is sure to be the result in Adams county, he said.

In closing, Mr. Rasmussen again urged the standardization not only of crops, but of all farm livestock. "There is inequality existing at the present time between the selling price of farm products and the price farmers must pay for raw materials," Mr. Rasmussen declared, "but this condition will right itself through the laws of economics, if the farmers will help by advancing the quality of what they have to sell."

SENTENCES WOMAN

Abandoned Child; Must Serve Penitentiary Term.

Pleading guilty to a charge of manslaughter in miscellaneous court Tuesday, Mary Woods, of Shippensburg, who was arrested for abandoning her two-month-old daughter in a field, and held for murder and manslaughter, was sentenced to serve not less than 18 months nor more than two years in the Eastern Penitentiary. When arrested the woman was held under a charge of murder, but this was dropped when she pleaded guilty to manslaughter.

Her attorneys, John D. Faller, A. M. Bowman and F. R. Lloyd, during the hearing before Judge E. M. Riddle, made an appeal to have a light sentence imposed due to the woman's mental condition, which was testified to be that of a ten-year-old child.

Judge Riddle in handing down his decision said that he was inclined to let the girl go without sentence, but on account of the influence it may have on any similar case, committed her to the State prison.

RULES IN CHURCH CASE

Lutheran Pastor Must Surrender Church Property.

In an opinion handed down in Pittsburgh Monday afternoon the Supreme Court affirmed the decision of Judge C. V. Henry, specially presiding in Dauphin county, in the Holy Communion Lutheran Church dispute. In this equity case brought by U. G. Nagle and others against the Rev. John Henry Miller and members of the congregation supporting him, the court held that the minister must surrender the church property.

The suit attracted much attention because of the contention of the pastor that the church had a right to withdraw from the synod with which it was associated because of disapproval of the United Lutheran Church merger. Attorneys for the defense said Tuesday they have not decided whether any further action will be taken in the courts.

COUNTY FAIR WAS BIG SUCCESS

the greatest number of acres.

The baseball game during the afternoon drew scores of persons, who lined themselves around the field to watch Arendtsville defeat Bendersville. The score was 4 to 3. Shoap and Snyder were the battery for Arendtsville; while Bream and Stahle officiated on the mound and behind the bat for Bendersville.

Two members of the State Police force had difficulty during the more interesting parts of the game to restrain the crowd from surging upon the field and interfering with the players.

Band Furnishes Music.

Music during the afternoon was furnished by the Loysville Orphans' Home Band. During the evening, this band was augmented by the Mt. Joy Community Band when both rendered selections. Moving pictures were also a feature of the evening.

Displays of farm and orchard machinery; labor saving devices for use by the farm-wife, and automobiles occupied a portion of the fair grounds.

It was not until midnight that the last light on Arendtsville Union Park was extinguished and the first exhibition of the South Mountain Fair Association came to a close.

Prolonged drouth throughout the county left its impression on the roads leading to the fair grounds. Passing vehicles stirred up clouds of dust. The grounds were slightly dusty, but not enough to mar the pleasure of the visitors.

THE BUSY MAN'S NEWSPAPER

MOSQUITO FAN

Chicago, Sept. 27.—If you are subjected to boring mosquitoes a home remedy is offered which tests have proven is more effective than swatting and other methods of extermination.

When bothered in your bedroom at night, remove a screen from the window, place an electric fan inside the room about six feet from the window facing it, and turn on the current.

The stiff breeze will draw the mosquitoes into its path and will be too strong for them to repel. They will be blown from the room and will be unable to fight their way back against the air current. In a short time the entire room will be cleared of the insects.

This method was devised by a Western Electric engineer after watching the method used to remove the last trace of air from vacuum tubes used in radio.

WOMEN CAMPAIGN FOR 'WETS'

New York, Sept. 27.—Campaigning for "wet" candidates, nine women delegates to the Albany and Syracuse Republican and Democratic State conventions have left the headquarters of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment on a speaking tour on their way to the convention cities.

The two parties traveled in decorated motor cars. In the Republican car were Mrs. Mary Grout, Miss Alice Carpenter, Miss Irene Grout and Mrs. Louise Seigel. The Democratic machine contained Miss Amelia Naughton, Mrs. Mabel Fitzgerald, Mrs. John Fletcher and Miss Mary Fleming.

WOMEN SEEM TO LEAD

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 27.—More than one-fourth of the delegates attending the triennial convention here of the Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity, were women.

One of the leading figures of the convention was Miss Olive W. Dennis of Baltimore. Instead of designing hats she plans bridges, being a civil engineer and one of twelve women in the United States actively following that profession. She is employed in the head office of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

Judge Florence E. Allen, of Cleveland, was another of the women delegates.

SHIP ENGLISH HOUSE TO U. S.

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—An entire English house, said to be more than five centuries old, is being brought to San Francisco. The house, known as Norland Hall, was purchased by a San Franciscan who intends to erect it on his estate here. Old stones weighing several hundredweight, a massive stone fireplace, fine plaster work, friezes, pillars, an old gallery and other parts of the old building were carefully crated and placed aboard a freighter.

TO TEST DANCERS

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 27.—A concerted movement for a state law requiring all dancing teachers to pass an examination for a state license is being urged by the Ohio Association of Teachers of Dancing. Members say this will raise dancing standards by barring the teachers of wriggles and twists.

REPUDIATES TIERNAN CHILD

Harry Poulin Denies Testimony Of Professor's Wife.

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 27.—The Poulin-Tiernan case was expected to come to an end yesterday. It will be left to Judge Ducomb to decide whether the charge of Mrs. Augusta Tiernan that Harry Poulin is the father of her ten months old child is to be upheld.

Following the examination of Poulin yesterday the defense closed its case. The defendant's testimony was in effect a general denial of previous testimony by the plaintiff. The witness said at no time had any too friendly relations been carried on between himself and his accuser. He denied he had ever accompanied Mrs. Tiernan alone to places where the latter had testified he had taken her.

Mrs. Tiernan's testimony was corroborated by that of her husband, Professor John Tiernan, of Notre Dame University.

CERTAIN HER BABY TALKED

Mason City, Ia., Sept. 27.—A combination of mother love and telepathic communication with the unborn—that is Mrs. Peters Zoutes' explanation of her baby son's thrice repeated cry of "Mother" five minutes after he was born.

"When I went under the ether, my last word was mother," she asserted.

"As I uttered the words, just as I was passing from the twilight of consciousness, I seemed to get an answer, an answer of assurance from somebody. I didn't think of it then, but now I'm convinced a communication had been set up between me and my baby even then.

"I believe in telepathy and I believe on basis is love. Up to this time my mother is the only one who has been able to get my messages. I don't suppose a more devoted, inseparable mother and daughter than mother and I could be found. It is possible, it seems to me, the reciprocal power along this line she once enjoyed has been transferred to the baby."

RENEWED TESTIMONY

No one in Gettysburg who suffers backache, headaches, or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this Gettysburg woman's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Gettysburg resident can doubt.

Mrs. D. F. Arendt, R. R. St., gave the following statement February 14, 1916: "Doan's Kidney Pills have always given me the most excellent results. I was suffering from backache and dizzy headaches and my kidneys were much too free in action. I felt all worn out in the morning. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I purchased some at the Peoples Drug Store and they gave me relief at once and have always given me such fine benefit that I keep them on hand to use in case of need."

On April 11, 1921, Mrs. Arendt said: "I don't have any kidney trouble any more and I attribute my cure to Doan's Kidney Pills." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Arendt had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

PAYING FOR THE HOME

"Up to two years ago my money all went to the doctors and medicine for my stomach trouble. I was constantly filled with gas and no medicine helped me permanently until I tried a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy at that time with excellent results. Now I am using my money in paying for a home." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Peoples Drug Store and druggists everywhere.

Makes Loose Teeth Firm and Immovable

Heals Sore, Tender Gums and Makes Teeth so Firm Eating is a Pleasure.

People who have spongy, soft, sore, bleeding or receding gums or loose teeth—symptoms of that dread disease—Pyorrhea—are foolish if they permit these ailments to trouble them unnecessarily. They can do as hundreds of others have done, start at once to use the MOAVA DENTAL TREATMENT, the discovery of a well known Rochester, N. Y., dentist.

As a result of using this treatment which in the form of dental paste is simple and cleanly to use, your teeth will begin to tighten, the gums will stop bleeding, receding or discharging pus and the entire mouth and throat feel cleaner and taste sweeter.

You have undoubtedly wanted to know if a treatment existed that could cure Pyorrhea or Rigg's Disease and put an end to all mouth and gum disorders. MOAVA DENTAL CREAM is just such a treatment and you can try it on the money back if dissatisfied plan. —Peoples Drug Store... can supply you.

The man who asks simply for "medium" oil doesn't go far enough

"MEDIUM" is a term somewhat loosely employed by motorists when asking for oil that is neither too light in "body" nor too heavy.

But outward appearance alone means little. To what degree will the oil maintain its "body" or character under the intense heat of the cylinders, the attacks of swiftly moving friction surfaces, the tremendous pressure and explosion-impact exerted against the bearings? Ask definitely for and you'll get oil sure to be right in character, high in quality and dependable in performance.

Atlantic contains only the highest heat-resisting hydrocarbons the crude oil affords. It is oil having the piston-sealing advantages of heavier oils while still retaining the free-flowing mobility to reach every bearing surface at all speeds or temperatures.

Play safe! Atlantic Medium is based on twenty-five years of special study of the lubrication requirements of internal combustion engines.

VENIZELLOS MAY GET CALL

Nationalist Ministry Said to Aim of Greek Premier.

Athens, Sept. 27.—Premier Triantafyllakos is planning to strengthen his Cabinet still further, according to the newspapers, by proposing the creation of a National Ministry representing all parties and including Eliutherios Venizelos, who would serve as a special envoy in the entente capitals.

This move is described as the Cabinet's answer to the project of bringing General Metaxas into power, and is hailed not only as clever political initiative but also as a step calculated to assure a united Greece at this moment of complete international isolation.

Former Premiers Gounaris and Stratos, and also General Metaxas, would be invited to become members of the Ministry under the coalition scheme as outlined.

EASY JOB FOR PRINCE

London, Sept. 27.—The Prince of Wales is the first member of the Royal family "to get back to work" after the summer holidays.

He will "play himself in" tomorrow as Captain of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St Andrew's from which eminent office Field Marshal Earl Haig has just retired. His royal Highness will be required to drive off from the first tee before the eyes of thousands of critical spectators, thus having as severe a test imposed upon him as has any captain-elect since the Royal and Ancient was founded in 1754. When King Edward VII was elected to become captain of the club, about sixty years ago, the "playing in" was performed by a deputy.

The Prince of Wales to-morrow night will preside at the club dinner, which is always a feature of the ceremony, and one of the privileges will be paying for all the wine consumed.

FATHER SHOOTS DAUGHTER

Parent Seems Delirious And Cannot Give Reason for Wounding Girl.

Seranton, Sept. 27.—George Young awaited examination yesterday by county authorities, who seek to determine why he shot and seriously wounded his daughter, Mrs. Fred Smith, at her home in Vandling last night. Young, who surrendered himself to the police, appeared delirious at times and said he did not know why he had shot. The bullet struck Mrs. Smith in the back. She is in a critical condition.

800 WAR WOUNDED

London, Sept. 27.—Although it is nearly four years since fighting in the great war ceased, there are still some 800 patients in a special surgery hospital in London with wounds that refuse to heal.

Operations have been endured pluckily, but without permanent success. Nearly all the cases are those of fracture of some kind or another, and a large staff of surgeons and nurses is kept busy. Many of the present patients have been at work, but they returned to the hospital for attention because pieces of shrapnel turned up in various parts of their bodies, and these have to be removed lest they cause trouble in another limb.

LIGHTED PARK

Officials of the South Mountain Fair Association today expressed appreciation of the efforts of the Delco light dealers in Biglerville, who lighted the Arendtsville Park Tuesday evening. Five thousand feet of wire was used and 125 lamps. Current was also furnished for the moving picture machines.

CUTTING DOWN CLOTHES BILL BY ELIMINATING ITEMS OF EXPENSE

Group of Business Women Making Garments.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

A great deal has been written and said on the cost of women's clothes, with special attention to the attire of the business woman and the amount of money that should be spent on dress in proportion to what is earned. The United States Department of Agriculture has received an interesting record of what can actually be done when a sensible girl makes up her mind that she ought to keep her clothing expenses down to a minimum and at the same time look attractively and appropriately dressed both at the office and at social affairs outside of business hours.

In the first place the premise must be granted that the most successful way to reduce the cost of a commodity is to eliminate as far as possible the items of labor and distribution cost. A girl who cannot sew has little chance of reducing her clothing budget unless she meets with extraordinary luck in finding bargains. One who is willing and has the time to substitute some of her own labor for that represented in the price of the ready-made garment is on the road to real economy.

The business girl may justly claim that she has little time or energy to make clothes for herself, when her day at the office is over. In the case of a skilled sewer, however, who enjoys an occupation that is a change from desk work and has a creative element, both the time and energy may be found.

Returned Sewing Record.
A girl, who for convenience may be called Elizabeth Brown, recently returned a record of her own sewing which greatly interested extension specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. She is a government employee at Washington, D. C., and had learned to make a dress form in one of the early demonstrations of the art of making gunned paper dress forms, which have been a popular feature of extension work in clothing in practically every state. This type of dress form is made by pasting, over a tight-fitting vest worn by the model, several layers of the gunned paper which comes for bundle wrapping. When the paper casing is cut off the model and fastened together it is a stiff, light, but perfect reproduction of that person's form.

Elizabeth Brown, of course, had the counterpart of her own figure to use as she worked. She did her sewing after office hours, finding time nevertheless to enjoy wearing the clothes frequently at pleasant social gatherings. It would be impossible to estimate the amount of time this simple device saved Elizabeth when it came to designing, measuring, pinning or fitting. Parts could be basted accurately in place right on the form and sewed up without delay; patterns could be adapted, draperies hung, dresses designed entirely. Putting washable sleeves into winter dresses by means of the dress form was one little time-saving use for it; arranging the straps of camisoles and tacking collars on straight were tasks occurring almost daily for which the dress form was a great convenience.

Here are the details of Elizabeth Brown's wardrobe, which required a cash outlay of $108.34. A conservative estimate places the cost of equivalent ready-made garments as good in quality at $210.

After pricing coats in the stores and finding that she could not buy one of the quality or kind that she wanted for less than $50, Elizabeth decided to make her own winter coat with the aid of the dress form. She bought tan broadcloth and good lining material and made it herself for a total outlay of $24.61. A blue voile dress with a slip, was next attempted. Commercial hemstitching for trimming was $1.85, bringing the cost of a very useful dress up to $11.09. A tissue gingham dress came to $6.33, including organdie for trimming and also hemstitching; another gingham dress made out of scraps and a remnant cost only 45 cents.

Dresses for Social Affairs.
A dress of pussy willow taffeta and georgette crepe served for informal social occasions. The investment of $16 for materials produced a dress that could not have been bought ready made in the same quality for less than $35. Similarly Elizabeth's business dress of serge and crepe de chine would have been priced at $40 or more if made of the good fabrics for which she paid $18.39. Her evening dress, which was of taffeta and silver lace, cost only $21, although it was modeled after one seen in a store at a much higher price.

This wardrobe, augmented by two made-over dresses for which new materials had to be purchased, bringing the entire expenditure up to $108.34, is not elaborate. It is sufficient for the particular needs of the wearer, who remarked in this connection that because of having a variety of clothes this year she had been able to attend many enjoyable social affairs which required more than business clothes.

Without the aid of the dress form it is doubtful if any business girl in the time at her disposal could make so many garments. Elizabeth, at any rate, did not believe so; in addition to her other activities she made ten dress forms for other girls, holding meetings at which more than fifty altogether also learned how to make the forms and were enabled in turn to demonstrate this convenience to others.

ICE IN HOME IS NECESSITY

Can Be Made to Last Considerably Longer if Covered With Few Newspapers.

Although quite expensive, ice in the home is a necessity and not a luxury. For that reason it is very desirable to make it last as long as possible. While it is true that most of the refrigerators and ice boxes are reasonably well insulated, at the same time the life of the ice can be prolonged from one-fourth to one-third provided it is well covered with five or six thicknesses of newspapers. The best way to put this paper on is to spread it over the top and sides of the ice, taking particular pains to see that it is well covered in front where the door closes.

Household Questions
Tomato rubbed into the hands will remove fruit stains.
Hard water may be softened with borax, lemon juice or an oatmeal bag.
Three level tablespoonfuls of browned flour will thicken one cupful of liquid for gravy.
Black specks on mirrors are quite easy to remove. Dip a flannel in either spirits of wine or turpentine, and rub the specks. Afterward polish the glass with powdered whiting.
To remove oil stains on carpets, dip a rag in petrol and begin by rubbing around the outside edge of the stain. Work around and round to the center. As soon as one portion of the rag becomes dirty, change to a clean part.

The Song of The Ralstons

With apologies to Alfred Lord Tennyson

I come from hides of sturdy steers,
Myself I vision on dancing peers.
For shoes may dance and shoes may prance
But RALSTONS—everyone's feet enhance.

I pass into the hands of skill,
And there I twist and twirl with a thrill.
For shoes are made and shoes are sold
But RALSTONS shall always save your gold.

I give you comfort, service, style,
There's lots of others on the pile.
For shoes are high and shoes are low,
But RALSTONS always suit your dough.

There's lots of shoes—that is quite so,
There's lots of shoes that come and go.
It seems that everything must have its day,
But RALSTON SHOES are here to stay.
